The half-day seminars will explore local preservation projects sharing lessons learned on best practices, common mistakes to avoid, and helpful tips and guidelines.

The seminars will be presented in 2 parts

PART ONE shares case studies that examine local projects and include information on the historic property; project goals; needs and threats; parties involved; what happened and lessons learned and advice for others doing a similar project.

PART TWO offers interactive breakout sessions facilitated by subject matter experts that present a deeper dive into topics that are part of overall preservation project planning.

Who should attend?

Community members and professionals who care about preserving the built and cultural sites that tell the stories of Hawai'i's history.
